

MAR 21 1956

STATINTL

Approved For Release 2000/05/24 : CIA-RDP75-00149R000

ONASSIS WINS IN COURTParis Magistrate Finds He Did Not Defraud Ship Owner—Special to The New York Times.*

PARIS, March 20—The law suit of an owner of Greek ships, charging that he had been defrauded by Aristotle Onassis, was dismissed today by a French examining magistrate.

The complaint was filed in November, 1954, by Spyridon Catapodis. He alleged that M. Onassis had reneged on a contract to pay him £200,000 ($560,000) for his efforts in behalf of M. Onassis' oil dealings with the Saudi Arabian authorities.

M. Catapodis declared the contract between the two men was signed by M. Onassis in disappearing ink. M. Onassis replied that he had handled the negotiations alone.

The negotiations resulted, early in 1954, in a contract between the Saudi Arabian government and M. Onassis under which the latter received a priority in hauling Saudi Arabia's annual production of 40,000,000 tons of oil.

CPYRGHT